I Speak Jesus
by Kings Porch

3

WORD - (15-20 MINUTES) READ Matthew 10:1-15

1. Who are the 12 disciples and what do we know about them?
2. What authority does Jesus give the disciples?
3. What are the disciples to do if their message is not welcome in a town or home?
4. What is the significance of Jesus limiting the disciples' mission to the "lost sheep of Israel" (verse 6)? Why not go to the Gentiles or Samaritans?
5. Why does Jesus emphasize reliance on hospitality and not bringing provisions (verses 9-10)? How does this reflect trust in God's provision?
6. In the scripture, Jesus gave His disciples the authority to heal and cast out demons, and He has also given us that same authority today. How does this impact us in 2024, or was this authority intended only for the original disciples?
7. Oftentimes we think that we have to have financial resources to help others. What does Acts 3:6 say about our need for resources and how can that inspire us to impact our community?
8. From October 31 to November 23, Celebration Church is kicking off our “24 Days of Impact” to reach Greater New Orleans and surrounding areas for Jesus. How will you, individually or as a group, take part in this important initiative? For more information check out celebrationchurch.org/impact24/
